Tuesday next, October 3d is election day, when the music commences.

The Lincoln Land Co. last week, laid out an 80-acre addition to Benkelman.

The Oxford Register has been leased from Judge Montgomery by Chas. Pickett, of Bloomington, who assumed charge of the paper, last Thursday.

The first issue of the Benkelman News is before us. The News has the appearance of having a printer and a gentleman at its helm. To such we extend our hearty good wishes.

The Cambridge Labor Liberator has flopped over into the great unwashed, and will in the sweet subsequently be known to fame as the Furnas County Democrat. Another battery unmasked.

The Furnas County Democrat wants to turn the rascals out. This recent exponent of bourbonism in the fullness of his demagogical exclaims: "If hell is paved with good intentions shoel is lined with broken party promises and the day and hour is now here in which to show our knowledge of the fact and that we cannot be longer deceived." "Come one and all help to 'Turn the rascals out.'"

The Republican victory is not to be credited to the virtues of the Republican managers, but to the sins of the Democracy. The Republicans possessed no elements of strength, either in leadership or policy, that they did not have two years ago; but the election of a Senator by Standard Oil wealth and the dictation of party affairs by the McLean ring has been more than the people of Ohio would stomach. The election is a rebuke to corporate domination, ring management and political corruption, and as such it is a verdict which will be approved by all independent and honest men.—Pittsburgh Dispatch, Ind.

ONE of the most atrocious deeds ever committed in this fair commonwealth occurred near Waco, last Saturday, when and where a phenomenal find named Brandt was running a threshing machine. A young boy of thirteen summers, who was cutting bands, accidentally cut Brandt's hand. This so enraged Brandt that he threatened to run the boy through the machine if the offense was repeated. The boy became excited and nervous, and in a few moments did again slightly cut Brandt, who seized the boy and threw him headlong into the cylinder. The boy was horribly mangled and instantly killed. A speedy action by Judge Lynch would fit the case admirably.

ACCORDING to the evidence of Mr. Downes, the Boston clergyman who was accused of too much familiarity with a female parishioner, his offense was of the most trivial character. He was merely making a pastoral call, and while talking with the lady concerning a trip she was contemplating, he pulled off his coat, unbuttoned his vest, turned down the gas and sat beside her on the bed "so as to lower the temperature of the room." He doesn't remember whether he removed his shoes or not. Eighty-nine of the brethren and sisters said it was all right by voting to dismiss the case against him. However, a small majority voted with the lady's husband the other way, and the Rev. Downes had to go.—Journal.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

The Red Willow Teachers' Association will hold their next meeting at the school in McCook on the 6th and 7th of November, 1885. The annual election will take place at said meeting on the 6th day of November, 1885, at 2 o'clock, P. M., at which time all offices must be re-filled. The program for the meeting aside from regular business will be as follows:

- C. L. Nettleton—(Choice of subject.)
- I. T. Birisall—(Choice of subject.)
- Mrs. Mary E. Dutcher—"Penmanship."
- Mrs. N. Hammond—"Primary Teaching Against Intemperance."
- Prof. Charles—"Are Monthly Examinations Beneficial?"
- Mr. Haywood—"Are Modern Methods Improved Methods?"
- Miss Haine—"How to Manage 'The Bad Boy.'"
- Mr. Stephenson—"What to Teach."
- W. S. Webster—"The Dram Shop vs. The School Room."
- D. F. Schwab—"School Buildings."
- Mrs. C. L. Nettleton—"How to Teach."
- Wm. McCool—"Books and Their Uses."
- Miss Minnie Mann—"Language in Common Schools."
- Miss Alice Murphy—"Government from a physical Stand-point."
- Miss Martha Jane Jamison—"The Teacher's Influence Outside the School Room."
- Miss Ada P. Buck—"Aims of School Government."

The above program will be interspersed with music and general exercises. Not only are teachers cordially invited, but everybody is urged to come.
ADA P. BUCK, Secretary.

PERSONALS.

J. S. Lellw came up from Sutton, yesterday.

W. H. Hayden is in town looking after his extensive mercantile interests here.

G. W. Ballentine, the B. & M. stock agent, was registered at the Eating House, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Straut, and the Judge's sister from Lawrence, ass., are in the city, to-day.

H. A. Houghton, representing the State Journal Co., was in town with a fine line of samples, Wednesday.

A. D. McCandlish and wife of Beatrice, and W. L. McClary and wife of Stockville, were in the city, yesterday.

Friend Gordon and bride came up from Arapahoe, Wednesday evening, to hear the Schuberts, and like all lovers of music, were delighted.

L. Lowman and wife arrived from Boulder, Monday, and are busy at work establishing themselves in their quarters in the Pathe brick, opening goods, etc.

W. Barnhart, of Barnhart Bros. & Spindler, type foundry, Chicago, made THE TRIBUNE a flying visit, Friday, while 39 engine engines. Mr. Barnhart was en route for Denver.

J. J. Irwin, who has been in the B. & M. telegraph office at this place, a few days, went down to Bloomington, Monday, on 40, where he will "sling lightning" for a season. He is a former C. B. & Q. man.

J. L. Brush of Greeley, Colo., one of the most extensive stockmen in that locality, was registered at the Eating House, Tuesday. Mr. Brush was on his way home from Chicago, whither he recently shipped a number of car-loads of steers.

Mrs. Jos. Menard and youngest daughter, Aimee, started for Chicago on No. 40, Tuesday evening. Mrs. Menard will remain two or three months, while the little one will probably remain longer, attending a private school for those afflicted with dumbness, and living with her grand-parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McNeely of St. Joe, Mo., who have been visiting in our city for the past week, started for their home, this morning. Mr. McNeely is largely interested in our city and vicinity, and is now erecting a handsome business house on one of his lots on Main Avenue. He informs us that in the spring he will erect two more business houses, on West Dennison street. He has great confidence in McCook's future and is greatly pleased with the growth during the past year. We would like to welcome more just such men of means to our city.

A Great Historical Work.
